

PARENTS' RIGHT TO REQUEST INFORMATION REGARDING A TEACHER'S QUALIFICATIONS

As part of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), school systems are required to notify parents of children attending schools that are recipients of Title I funds of the parents' right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's teachers. To request information about the qualifications of your child's teacher, a written request should be submitted to: Claiborne County Board of Education, P. O. Box 179, Tazewell, TN 37879. Information regarding certification may also be obtained from the teacher license lookup section of the Tennessee Department of Education's website at: <https://www.k-12.state.tn.us/tncertif/>.
